The Seminary

Williamsport Dickinson Seminary is a high grade boarding school for both sexes. For seventy-five years it has been doing its work with constantly increasing efficiency.

Location

Williamsport is called "The Queen City of the West Branch of the Susquehanna River." Statistics prove it to be the healthiest city in the State of Pennsylvania, and it is reported to be the third healthiest city in the United States. It is famous for its picturesque scenery, its beautiful homes, and the culture and the kindness of its people. The Pennsylvania, the Reading, and the New York Central Railroads, with their fast trains, put Williamsport within two hours' reach of Harrisburg, four and a half hours of Philadelphia, and seven hours of Pittsburgh.

Aim

The Seminary aims to fit for college and for life. It prepares students for any college or technical school. For those who do not plan to go to college, it offers exceptionally strong courses leading to appropriate diplomas. The large number of graduates who have gone directly from the Seminary to their life work, and are now filling high positions is the best possible testimony to the educational value of these courses.

Faculty

The Faculty is composed of thoroughly trained, carefully selected Christian men and women. The two ideals they hold before themselves are scholarship and character.

A Home School

Every effort is put forth to make the Seminary as home-like as possible. The instructors live with the students, room on the same halls, eat at the same tables, and strive in every way to win their confidence and friendship.

Map Showing Williamsport's Location and Railroad Connections

A School of Culture

The Seminary aims to develop in its students an easy familiarity with the best social forms and customs. Inter-course with young people of both sexes in the dining hall, at receptions and other social functions, together with frequent talks by instructors, do much in this way for both ladies and gentlemen.

A Religious School

The Seminary is a religious school. It is not sectarian. At least four religious denominations are represented on its Board of Directors. Every student is encouraged to be loyal to the church of his parents. But the atmosphere of the school is positively and aggressively religious. Every effort is made to induce students to enter upon the Christian life and be faithful thereto.

Discipline

The Seminary believes that young people can be led better than they can be driven. It strives to inspire its students with high ideals rather than to force them to do right through fear of punishment. But any lawlessness is promptly, and, if necessary, severely dealt with. Those who will not try to do right are not wanted at the Seminary.

The Sexes

The ladies' apartments are entirely separate from the others. Young ladies are chaperoned to all public entertainments. Association of the young men and young women except in the presence of instructors is not countenanced.

Athletics

The place of athletics in the life of the modern school is fully recognized. Attendance in the gymnasium is compulsory. Two Physical Directors care for the health of the students and direct their athletic work. One of the finest athletic fields in the State offers every facility for football, baseball, tennis, and other out-door sports.

Buildings

The buildings are of brick. They stand upon an eminence overlooking the city, in the midst of about six acres of beautiful grounds. The rooms are large, airy, and well furnished. The buildings are lighted with electricity, heated with steam, and supplied throughout with hot and cold water and all the modern conveniences. Constant care is exercised to preserve the best sanitary conditions.

Rooms Furnished

Our rooms are thoroughly furnished. We supply bed, bedstead, pillows, pillow slips, sheets, blankets, and counterpanes. The student should bring with him the following: 4 table napkins, 2 laundry bags, 1 pair slippers, shoe polishing outfit, 1 clothes brush, 1 bath robe, 6 face towels, 4 bath towels. We supply two double blankets. If students wish more they must bring them. Every article of clothing that goes to the laundry should be plainly marked with the student's full name with the best indelible ink that can be purchased.

Literary Societies

Three literary societies, the Belles Lettres, Gamma Epsilon, and Tripartite Union, with well selected libraries aggregating over two thousand volumes, are maintained by the students.

Library

A reference library is part of the equipment of the Seminary and every effort is made to train the student in an intelligent use of the same.

The James V. Brown Public Library is within two squares of the Seminary. Its large collection of books as well as its courses of lectures and entertainments are freely open to all students of the Seminary.

Special Information

Young people of good moral character may enter the Seminary at any time for a single term or longer.

Applicants must bring certificate of work done and recommendation from schools previously attended or from former instructors, or other responsible persons.

Students from a distance are required to live in the buildings, but those having near relatives residing in Williamsport are sometimes granted permission to make their homes with them.

Students are expected to come on the first day of the term and remain until the last day. Absences from classes, at the beginning or end of holiday recesses, count double and will not be excused, except for very special reasons.

Parents should not call their children home during the term. Any absence interferes with good work.

Permits from home are accepted as advices, not mandates. In any case the final decision as to whether a permission will be granted, rests with the President and Faculty. A permit, to be considered, should be mailed directly to the President.

No student shall be considered as having severed his connection with the Seminary until notice has been given and permission obtained from the President.

Students must report at the Seminary immediately upon arrival in Williamsport.

Students should be sparingly supplied with spending money. Whenever desired a member of the Faculty will act as patron, paying weekly such allowances as may be designated, and supervising all expenditures.

The whole wardrobe for girls should be in good taste but simple and inexpensive. Unbecoming costume and elaborate jewelry are not permitted.

Frequenting hotels and pool rooms, using intoxicating liquors, playing at cards or games of chance, indulging in coarse or profane language are strictly forbidden.

No firearms of any kind are allowed in the buildings.

Any student, who for disciplinary reasons, is requested to leave the city before a certain time, shall be considered as having expelled himself if he delays his departure beyond the time designated.

The Sabbath must be fittingly observed. Attendance upon church services is required of all.

All students are expected to provide themselves with Methodist hymnals (new edition) for use in the chapel service.

Students in residence at the Seminary shall not be allowed to maintain automobiles at the school or in the city, nor shall they be allowed to hire or leave the city in automobiles without permission from the President.

Meeting or engaging in conversation by boys and girls is forbidden except at such times and places as may be arranged for by the Faculty.

Teachers and students remaining at the Seminary during the short vacations will be charged $1.50 for each day or part of a day.

Guests may be entertained only when the permission of the President has first been obtained and their hosts pay the regular rates for their entertainment. Parents or guardians visiting pupils are for the first twenty-four hours the guests of the Seminary. No visitors are allowed in the halls or in the students' rooms without permission.

Everyone who desires to continue as a student of the Seminary must show a reasonable disposition to comply with its regulations. In addition to the above some of the things expected are the following:

To be present at recitations or in his own room or in the study hall during study hours.

To keep his room and furniture in good condition.

To pay at once for any damage done by him to furniture, room, or any part of the grounds and buildings.

To refrain from using tobacco in any form about the buildings or grounds.

Not to leave the city or go bathing, boating, skating, fishing, gunning, or riding without permission from the President.

To obtain the permission of the Faculty before dropping any study which has been taken up.

Day students during school hours are under the same regulations as the boarding students. They are required:

To study quietly in the Study Hall when not in actual attendance upon recitations.

To attend the morning chapel services.

To procure from parent or guardian a written excuse for absence from chapel or recitation.

To abstain from all visiting in dormitory halls or in students' rooms during study hours.

Terms

The School year is divided into two Semesters of eighteen weeks each. The rates given below cover instruction in any of the regular courses—College Preparatory, English, Belles Lettres, History and Literature, and Commercial, and are for two students rooming together. Students rooming alone must pay, at the time the room is engaged, an extra charge of fifteen dollars per semester.

Campus Day

They will be refunded only in case notice of withdrawal is given before the fifteenth day of August. All boarding and day students will be admitted free to all Entertainments, Lectures, Musicales, Athletic Games, etc., arranged by the Seminary.

A deposit of 50 cents is required for each key.

Payments

All bills are payable in advance, one-half at opening, one-half at the middle of the semester. The Seminary cannot carry accounts over. One man can arrange for the amount due by him more easily than the Seminary can arrange to carry a deficit caused by the failure of a large number of patrons to pay promptly. We absolutely must insist upon the prompt payment of all bills.

No deduction is made for absence, except in cases of prolonged and serious illness or other unavoidable providence, when the price of board (not tuition, room, etc.,) is refunded. No deduction is made for the first two weeks or the last three weeks of the year or the term.

In order to graduate and receive a diploma or certificate a student must have spent at least one year in study at the Seminary and also have paid all his bills, in cash or its equivalent—not in notes.

Discounts

The charge for tuition as day students to children of ministers who are serving churches in Williamsport and vicinity will be one-fourth the regular amount.

Special discounts are allowed on the regular $150 and $550 rates to the following:

- (1) Two students from the same family at the same time.
- (2) Children of ministers living elsewhere than in Williamsport and vicinity.
- (3) Students preparing for the ministry or missionary work.

Not more than one discount will be allowed to any student.

The Seminary reserves the right to withdraw any discount from a student whose work or behavior is unsatisfactory.

Courses of Study

The Diploma of the Seminary will be awarded to the student who completes any one of the following courses: College Preparatory, English, Belles Lettres, History and Literature, Course in Commerce, Piano, Voice, Violin, Expression, Art, and Home Economics.

The College Preparatory course offered by the Seminary covers the needs of those preparing for college or technical school.

The English Course does not prepare for college. It is designed for those students who find themselves unable to complete their education in college or who are unable to carry the work of the College Preparatory Course.

Wherever elective subjects are listed in any course, it is the aim of the faculty to schedule a student in the way which will best train him or her for the particular college course or vocation to be pursued.

Emphasis will be laid upon thoroughness of work. The Faculty reserves the right to limit the number of studies which any pupil will be allowed to carry.

Students who do not intend to pursue one of the regular courses, with the consent of their parents and the approval of the Faculty, may elect such studies as they desire.

At least two years of any language elected in any course will be required for graduation.

For more detailed information as to text books used, methods, etc., see under Departments.

The minimum requirement for graduation in the History and Literature course consists of twelve one year subjects, or their equivalent, in addition to the Bible and Physical Training courses. Only those students who are graduating at the same time in Music, Art, or Expression are eligible to graduate in this course.

Certificate Privileges

Graduates from the Seminary in the College Preparatory Course are admitted into practically all colleges by certificate without examination.

Certificates, with recommendation for admission to college, will be granted in any subject only to students who make a grade of at least 80%.

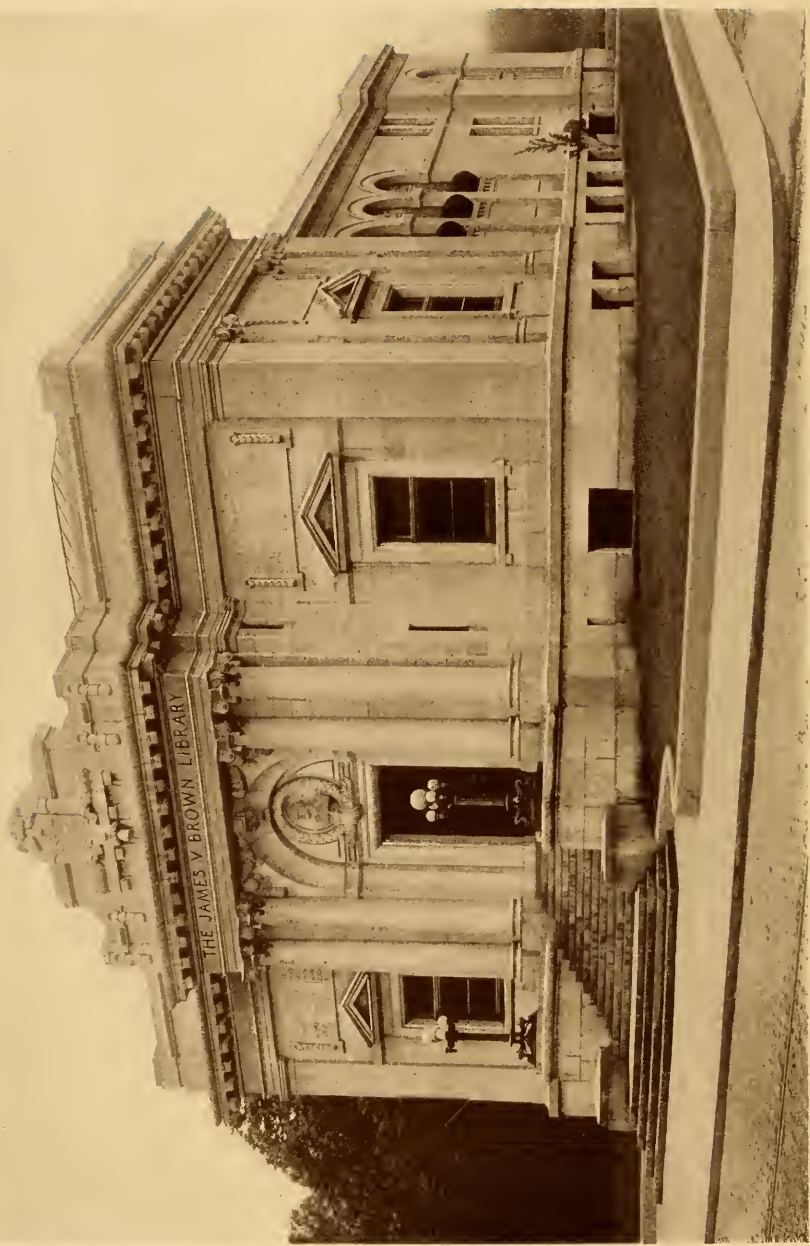

Departments

English Bible

English Bible is a required study throughout the entire course. Every student, whether in a regular course or a special student, is assigned to one of the Bible classes. The effort is made by the use of text books and lectures to acquire a familiarity with the outline and most striking events and characters of Biblical History. (One period a week.)

Ancient Languages

The practical value of a study of the classics has often been questioned, but nothing has ever been found to take its place. The classics are still retained in the best courses

*Williamsport Public Library
Situated near Campus and available to faculty and students* of the best schools, and are pre-eminently adapted to bring the student to an acquaintance with the sources of inspiration of all the literature of succeeding periods.

Every effort is put forth to make the study full of life and interest for the student. Scrupulous attention is given to grammatical structure, the relation of these languages to English, the illustration and application of rules of syntax, accuracy and elegance in translation, and the literary significance of the authors. Prose composition is carried throughout the course. Especial emphasis is laid on translation and composition at sight, and no student will be recommended for admission to college who cannot deal successfully with this part of the work.

Latin

PROFESSOR GREENE

First Year

Text: First Latin Lessons, Scott. Careful study of simple Latin forms and constructions. Sight and prepared translation of connected Latin sentences with a view to reading as soon as possible, material dealing with classical stories and myths. Writing of English sentences in Latin. Reading of selections from Fabulae Faciles, Roman history and biographies, and Caesar. Frequent exercises in writing English in Latin. English derivatives continued. Since many students do not continue the study of Latin beyond the second year, the work of the first two years is conducted with a view to making it of value in itself, as well as to furnishing adequate preparation for those who wish to continue the study of the language beyond these years.

Third Year

Text: Cicero's Select Orations, D'Ooge. Review of grammar of the First and Second Years. Reading of the following orations: Catiline I-IV, Manilian Law, and Archias, with an intensive study of the two latter orations. Such phases of Roman life are studied as will lead to a better understanding of the Latin read. Prose composition. The text used in the prose work is Bennett's New Latin Composition.

Fourth Year

Texts: Vergil's Aeneid, Knapp; Selections from Ovid, Kelsey and Scudder. Review of grammar of the previous years. Reading of selections from Books I-VI of the Aeneid and from Ovid. Assigned readings in Mythology. Continued study of Roman life. Scansion. Prose composition. Bennett's New Latin Composition is also the text used in the prose work of this year.

Greek

PROFESSOR STERLING

Sciences

PROFESSOR CORNWELL

The Department of Science affords the training and development particular to the sciences. What the student does in the laboratory is frequently made the subject of class room discussion. Use is made of the many modern industrial applications of science. The aim throughout is to foster the spirit of inquiry into the causes of natural phenomena and to develop the scientific method of approach. Requirements for future study in general or applied science are fully met.

The courses offered are as follows:

Biology. This one-year course aims to give the proper perspective to the student beginning the study of science. It seeks to approach the study of life, especially in its simpler forms, with the idea of opening before the student the door to a true realization of the meaning of physical life and to an appreciation of its problems. New Essentials of Biology, Hunter.

Physics. One year is devoted to the study of Physics. The course includes four recitations and two hours of laboratory work per week. Forty experiments are performed, data recorded, and notes written up in the laboratory. Practical Physics, Carhart and Chute.

Chemistry. The subject of Chemistry is pursued throughout the year, the course consisting of four recitations and two hours of laboratory work each week. The course includes descriptive chemistry, and a thorough and systematic treatment of the science with considerable emphasis put on the chemistry of modern life. Forty experiments are completed and written up in the laboratory. An Elementary Study of Chemistry, McPherson and Henderson; Laboratory Exercises in General Chemistry, Williams and Whitman.

Modern Languages

MISS WALKER

Courses are offered in French and Spanish which fully prepare for college entrance. The aim is to give at least the beginnings of a real insight into the language and literature. As far as possible the language studied is made the language of the class room. Daily exercises in grammar, translation and composition are supplemented by frequent conversational exercises, the memorizing of standard poems, and class singing of songs.

French

First Year

New Elementary French Grammar, Fraser and Squair. Contes et Légendes, Guerber. Le Français, et sa Patrie, Talbot. Conversation. Sight translation. Poems memorized.

Second Year

Fraser and Squair, continued. Paris Pittoresque, Lee-man. Le Voyage de M. Perrichon, Labiche et Martin. Huit Contes Choisis, Maupassant. La Tulipe Noire, Dumas. Conversation. Dictations. Sight translation.

Third Year

Advanced composition, free reproductions. Sight translations. Le petit Chose, Daudet. La Poudre Aux Yeux, Labiche and Martin. Scènes de la Révolution Française, Lamartine. One book to be read outside. Reading of French Newspapers. The language of the classroom is French during the course.

Spanish

The growing commercial relations between the United States and South America, the valuable literature and history found in the Spanish language, make the study of that language more and more desirable if not a necessity. We are, therefore, offering a three years' course in this subject. The aim will be to acquire as early as possible a ready use of the spoken language, and to meet the requirements for admission to the colleges, nearly all of which now allow credit in Spanish for entrance.

First Year

Spanish Grammar, Hills and Ford. Elementary Spanish Reader, Harrison. Viaje a Sud-America, McHale. Writing Spanish from Dictation. Composition.

Second Year

Spanish Grammar, Hills and Ford, continued. Espana Pintoresca, Dorado. El Si de las Ninas, Moratin. El Capitan Veneno, Alarcon. Letters; Conversation, Spanish Composition, Broomhall.

Third Year

Advanced prose composition, free reproductions. Review of Grammar. Letters. Conversation. La Hermana San Sulpicio, Valdes. Cuentos. Selections from Don Quijote, Cervantes. El Trovador, Gutierrez, Reading of Spanish Newspapers.

Mathematics

PROFESSOR SKEATH

Arithmetic. Arithmetic is completed in the Academic and Commercial courses. Standard Arithmetic, Milne.

Algebra I. The four fundamental operations are thoroughly mastered, with special emphasis on inspection methods. The subject is pursued through factoring, fractions, and simultaneous equations. The large number of carefully graded written problems both show the value and interest of algebraic processes and develop the student's powers of applying principles to practical problems. First Book in Algebra, Durell and Arnold.

Algebra II. A month is devoted to a thorough review of first year work. Intermediate work is completed through quadratics, the progressions, and the binomial theorem, fully preparing the student for advanced work. Second Book in Algebra, Durell and Arnold.

Plane Geometry. A complete working knowledge of the principles and methods of the subject is aimed at, together with a development of the ability to give clear and accurate expression to statements and reasons in demonstration. A large amount of original work is required, training the student in the independent exercise of his reasoning powers. A New Plane Geometry, Durell and Arnold.

Solid Geometry. By emphasis on the effects of perspective, and by the use of models, the student is helped to a comprehension of figures and relations in three dimensions. The practical applications to mensuration problems are a feature of the course. Geometry, Durell and Arnold.

College Algebra. This course is for advanced students. After a review of quadratics and imaginary numbers, the course deals with series, determinants, theory and solution of higher equations, and various other topics. A College Algebra, Wentworth.

Trigonometry. This is the equivalent of the average college course in Plane Trigonometry. Both the practical work on triangles and the theory of relations among the functions receive due consideration. Plane Trigonometry and Surveying, Durell.

Plane Surveying. The theory and use of chain, tape, compass, level, and transit are taught. The methods of surveying and computing are explained. Each student is required to make plots, maps, and the necessary calculations from actual surveys. The recent addition of a high grade combined transit and leveling instrument makes possible a grade of work not usually done in secondary schools. Plane Trigonometry and Surveying, Durell.

English

MR. MCCLURE, MISS VANDYKE, MR. STERLING,
MISS KAPP

The purpose of the work in English is to develop, as far as possible, in every student, the ability to speak and write correctly. Representative classics of England and America are studied, along with the history of the literatures of the two countries. The schedule of English classics for college entrance requirements is followed throughout the four years. An attempt is constantly made to instil a "feeling for language," and to inculcate some conception of style, and towards the end of the course interpretative criticism on the part of the students themselves is striven for.

The four books of the "Literature and Life" series, by Greenlaw and others, are used throughout the course—one each year. Besides the classics from "Literature and Life" listed below for intensive study during the four years, all the introductions to the various chapters in the "Literature and Life" books, as well as practically all of the stories, essays, poems, etc., therein, are carefully read. The chapter introductions to Books II and IV comprise brief, but comprehensive, histories of American and English Literatures respectively, and are stressed.

Two pieces of written work are required of each student every week. Oral themes are required also from time to time. Every student, in addition to his regular class work, must read, and report on, four books each year. These books are selected with the approval, or on the recommendation, of the teacher. Two orations for public delivery are required of all students in English III and English IV.

The successful completion of English IV here is required of all students who are to receive a diploma of graduation in a course that requires four years of English.

First Year

Textbooks: High School English, Revised Edition, Book I, Brubacher and Snyder; Practical High School Speller, Chew; Literature and Life, Book I, Greenlaw-Elson-Keck.

Fourth Year

A special effort is made in the fourth year to prepare the student adequately for Freshman English in College. No student will be given credit for English IV, regardless of his marks in previous courses in English, until he has demonstrated to the entire satisfaction of his instructor his ability to write and speak the English language with at least a fair degree of correctness, and until he has in addition, made himself familiar with the conventionally required English and American classics, and is able to give them their proper setting in the history of literature.

Textbooks: High School English, Revised Edition, Book II, Brubacher and Snyder; A High School Spelling Book, Leonard and Fuess; Exposition and Argument, Foster; Literature and Life, Book IV, Greenlaw-Miles.

Psychology, Logic, Ethics, Literature

Psychology. The Mind and its Education, Betts. The importance of the study of Psychology as a foundation for the other sciences is emphasized. We endeavor to realize the close connection between Psychology and Life in its varied phases, and the supreme importance of the Good Will in its relation to emotion, intellectual action, and the formation of habit.

Logic. Elements of Logic, Jevons-Hill. A brief summary of Aristotelian Logic is followed by a study of the contributions to the science made by the greatest logicians since his day. The inter-relation of Psychology and Logic is shown, and the methods of the other sciences as a part of Logic are duly recognized. The cardinal principles underlying correct reasoning are carefully studied and applied to the detection of fallacy.

Ethics. Problems of Conduct, Drake. The work in Ethics seek to acquaint the student with the ideals of the different ethical schools and to show the reasonableness and necessity of loyalty to high moral standards.

Literature. History of English Literature, Long, and History of American Literature, Long, with supplementary reading. Apart from the required work, more extensive courses are offered in English and American Literature. In addition to the historical study, students are introduced to representative masterpieces and are helped to understand and enjoy what is best in our language.

Economics

Elements of Economics, Burch and Nearing. This is an introduction to the general field of economics, intended primarily for beginners. More emphasis is laid upon the concrete and practical side of the subject than upon the theoretical. Special attention is given to the study of modern economic problems such as immigration, child labor, conservation of natural resources, the tariff, etc.

Athletics and Physical Training (Boys)

COACH SWARTZ

The object of this department is to promote the general health and the physical and intellectual efficiency of the students. Persistent effort is made to interest everybody in some form of indoor and outdoor sports. All forms of sane and healthful exercise are encouraged, but excesses and extravagances are discouraged. The athletic teams are carefully selected and systematically trained. They are sent into a game to win if they can, but more emphasis is placed upon playing the game fair and straight than upon winning. The Seminary is represented each year in inter-scholastic contests by football, basketball, baseball, track and tennis teams. We have one of the best athletic fields in the state. Facilities are offered also for those who are fond of tennis, bowling and other sports.

The Academic Department

MISS HOOVEN

Young or backward pupils who are not prepared for the work of the regular courses enter the Academic Department. Here regularly graded classes in all the common English branches afford opportunity to take such work as they are fitted for. The work of the last year includes Arithmetic, Hamilton's Standard; Grammar, Pearson & Kirchwey; English Composition; Geography, Brigham and McFarland; Physiology; Drawing; Map Drawing; a School History of the United States, Stephenson; Reading, Spelling; and Penmanship.

The Junior School

MISS RUTHERFORD, MISS HERRINGTON

The training of children below the seventh grade, conducted by the teacher of the Junior School, is of vastly more importance than the average person realizes. Upon the foundation laid while the child is young depends the future work. For this the Seminary maintains a Junior School entirely separate and apart from the higher grades in a well lighted room especially designed for the purpose and fully equipped with all modern appliances. A competent teacher especially trained for this work gives to each pupil an amount of individual attention such as could not under ordinary conditions of school life be given. The special teachers in Art, Expression, and Physical Training give the Juniors lessons in these subjects, and the course of study and methods of instruction are such as are in use in the best Junior Schools of the country.

Commercial Department

MR. CARLSON, MRS. ALLEN

The day has come when the young man or woman who desires to win large success must receive a broader training for his or her work. From three to four years are spent in a school of law or medicine. Why should there not be an equally thorough training for business? If a boy prepares to enter college by studying for four years the languages and mathematics he will need when he enters upon his work there, why should he not spend three or four years in acquainting himself thoroughly with the theory and practice of business as it is carried on by the great industrial and financial concerns of today, getting a grip on the things he will need to use when he steps out into the business world? The attention of parents who have children they desire to prepare for business is especially directed to the course in Commerce, which, in addition to what has been mentioned, includes a three years' careful drill in those common English branches which are the raw material of all our knowledge, a course in commercial law, and full courses in bookkeeping and in stenography and typewriting. Students entering either the regular or one of the special courses are charged for tuition the regular rate of $150 per year. There are no extra charges unless extra work is taken.

One-Year Secretarial Course

The Secretarial Course prepares its graduates to take positions as "secretaries," not mere stenographers.

Business men, leaders in the arts and sciences, and men and women of affairs in general, require the services of private secretaries; and no other kind of service puts the bright, reliable, and ambitious young woman or young man in intimate touch with leaders in the various lines of endeavor as does secretarial work.

Since this work requires a high type of individual and a thorough preparation, the compensation and the opportunities for advancement are much better than for the stenographer.

In making up this course, many factors were considered. Everything modern in commercial education was regarded, and then weighed in the light of that conservative care that results from years of educational experience, until we have built up a sane, sound, up-to-the-minute Secretarial Course.

Conservatory of Music

MR. J. HARRY AKER, Director

The highest standard of musical excellence and artistic worth, such as will compare favorably with any other good school of music, is maintained in every branch of the work required by music students of Dickinson. The course of study offered is in accordance with such a standard and the requirements for graduation are such that no student can obtain a diploma without at least demonstrating sufficient ability to represent their particular line of work in a thoroughly proficient manner, such as will do credit to the institution, to the profession and to the art of music as a whole.

Special attention is called to the various advantages attendant upon pursuing a course of study in a regular and fully equipped school of music, such as private and public recitals in which the students take part, ensemble work of different kinds, and various vocal and instrumental organizations to which students are eligible.

Full and complete courses are given in Piano, Organ, Violin, Voice, Harmony, Counterpoint, Composition, History and Theory. All certificate and diploma students are required to do a certain amount of public recital work and all other students are required to appear in private or public recitals at the discretion of the director. The length of time necessary to complete any one course depends altogether on the ability and application of the student.

When a student is permitted to become a candidate for a certificate or a diploma, it does not necessarily follow that the applicant will receive said certificate or diploma in one year, as they may prove to be unable to complete the course satisfactorily within that time. The director reserves the right to announce his decision in such matters at any time within the school year.

New pianos have recently been placed in the Conservatory so as to give the best facilities to students for efficient work. The department furnishes twenty pianos for practice and four Concert Grand pianos for special courses and concert.

The department maintains a Glee Club and members are carefully selected and must be musically inclined. Such students are eligible.

Students are afforded a very great opportunity in the Violin Department by having special training with the Seminary orchestra which has won favor.

The varied studies and pieces mentioned in the above course is to be considered merely as an outline of the amount of work to be covered during the entire course leading to a diploma. Other works of an equivalent grade may be substituted at the discretion of the individual teacher. Such equivalent will also be recognized in classification of students who enter the department.

A diploma will be granted to a student who completes the Senior Year in piano as outlined above: Harmony, two years; History of Music, one year; Appreciation, one year; Analysis, one year. The candidate must give a public recital and must have completed our History and Literature Course or its equivalent. Students in their Senior Year are required to take their work with the head of the department. Any candidate, having completed the above, but who does not have the equivalent of a high school diploma, will be granted a certificate.

MR. OWEN

The instruction in this department is in charge of a successful and experienced teacher and concert player.

The course is founded upon the best conservatory methods and will be adapted to the needs of the pupil. A certain amount of knowledge of the History of Music is indispensable to every student.

Physical Training (Girls)

MISS HERRINGTON

The aim of this work is the care and the development of the body by means of appropriate exercises. The results to be achieved are better health, good poise, and the overcoming of such physical defects as will yield to corrective exercises. A portion of the time each week is given to physical culture with the purpose that the body may become free and more graceful. The gymnastic exercises consist largely of floor work and include arm and leg exercises, dumbbell, wand and Indian club work. All the girls are given training in Basketball according to girl's rules.

The New Gymnasium

The new gymnasium, which was dedicated November 8, 1924, meets the needs for more adequate equipment in the department of Physical Education which has been felt for a long time.

The building itself is 110 ft. by 88 ft. 6 in. of semi-fireproof construction, and of beautiful design. The exterior is of red brick corresponding with Bradley Hall and the Service Building, with limestone and granite trimmings. A feature of the exterior architecture is a balcony over the entrance portico.

Entrance to the new building is through a pretentious vestibule flanked on either side with stairs of ornamental iron and marble. Leading from the entrance hall is a door to a retiring room for women, provided with ample toilet facilities. To the left is a room for the Physical Director and an examination room, from which point of vantage the entire gymnasium is under the personal supervision of the Physical Director at all times.

The basement includes a modern swimming pool 20 x 60 ft., equipped with a sterilization and filtration plant, that will necessitate changing the water only four times a year. The pool is constructed of tile and is amply lighted, with large sash to the open air making a sunlit pool at nearly all hours of the day.

There are also two bowling alleys of latest design with separate private rooms and showers for both home and visiting teams. Provision for private dressing rooms and shower rooms for girls and women is made.

The gymnasium floor proper is 90 x 65 ft. with a stage at the easterly end so that the main floor can readily be converted into an auditorium if need be, suitable for recitals and even more pretentious productions. In every way the building is a center of athletic, social and cultural activities at Dickinson Seminary.
